Media Release

Over the past several weeks the Tsuut'ina Nation Police Service has been collaborating with the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department. As a result of this information sharing and a month-long investigation by the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police, Nathan Lee Chasing Horse also known as Nathan Chasing His Horse was arrested at his North Las Vegas, Nevada home on January 31, 2023. According to the Associated Press he is facing charges of sex trafficking, sexual assault of a child younger than 16 and child abuse.

We are currently working with our policing partners here in Alberta including the Calgary Police Service as we believe there may be other victims that may want to come forward.

We are further reviewing all related historical sexual assault files and working with a dedicated Crown Prosecutor to ensure all victims have a voice.

There is no statute of limitations on criminal sexual offences in Canada and we encourage anyone who has been a victim of a serious crime to report it, even if many years have passed since the incident. Contact Tsuut'ina Nation Police Service by calling 403-251-9660 or email at info@tsuutinapolice.com, the Calgary Police Service at (403)266-1234, or the RCMP detachment in your community.

These are very sensitive, personal crimes that can leave victims feeling vulnerable and susceptible to additional trauma. If you or someone you know is struggling, please contact some of the resources below or provided by the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation.
